The Investigator

ITINERARY

Destination: Kamloops, BC

Duration : 5-7 hours

Every investigation starts with a story, and in Kamloops, that story begins with a legend.

KAMLOOPS FILM EXPERIENCE

- 9:30AM
BILL MINER
MURAL

At the Bill Miner Mural, you're introduced to the "Gentleman Bandit," whose train robberies feel like something straight out of a classic crime film. Like many cinematic outlaws, Miner's story is calculated and elusive.
- 10:00 AM
RAILWAY
CORRIDOR AT RIVERSIDE PARK

From there, the investigation moves into the railway corridor, where the sound of passing trains adds a sense of tension. It's easy to imagine scenes like those in The X-Files, where Mulder and Scully follow leads into remote locations, never quite sure what they'll find. The environment feels active, like something has happened here, and you're just beginning to piece it together.
- 11:00AM
DOWNTOWN KAMLOOPS

Downtown, the role becomes yours. Inspired by filming locations from Power Rangers, Kamloops transforms into a place of hidden details. Just as Jason and his team begin to uncover their roles and piece together what's happening around them, you'll begin to do the same. Using this still image from Power Rangers, try to locate the exact cross street where the scene was filmed. Look for building details, signage, and street layout to solve the clue.
- 12:00PM
LUNCH

Fuel up at The Chook Eatery or Stone & Wood Public House before continuing the investigation.
- 1:30PM
EXIT ROOM

Inside an escape room, the pressure builds. Like any good mystery, each clue leads to another, and every solved piece reveals something new. The pacing mirrors the structure of a thriller, where time is crucial, and understanding unfolds one step at a time.
- 2:30PM
KENNA
CARTWRIGHT
NATURE PARK
OR PETERSON CREEK

The final chapter unfolds in the landscape. At Kenna Cartwright Nature Park or Peterson Creek, the elevation brings perspective. These are the kinds of settings seen in Maze Runner: The Death Cure or The X-Files, where characters step back, look at everything they've uncovered, and finally begin to understand the bigger picture. Standing above the valley, everything feels connected. The clues make sense, the story comes together, and the investigation is complete.
