KAMLOOPS FILM EXPERIENCE

10:00AM
RED BEARD
CAFE

Every romantic story begins quietly. At a café like Red Beard Café, the morning feels simple, familiar, and full of possibility. Similar to the tone of An Unfinished Life, where characters like Einar and Jean reconnect through small, meaningful moments. Sitting across from someone here, with coffee in hand, it's easy to feel that same sense of something slowly beginning.

11:30 AM
HORSEBACK RIDING

From there, the story opens into the landscape. A horseback ride through the countryside brings you into the same wide-open settings seen in Flicka 2, where Katy finds a connection with the land around her. The steady rhythm of the ride and the quiet of the surroundings create space for reflection. This feeling continues in the spirit of The Movie Star and the Cowboy, where characters step away from the spotlight and into something more real. Out here, the pace slows, and the focus shifts to the experience itself.

1:30PM
RIVERSIDE PICNIC

Continue your romantic journey to Riverside Park. Walking along the water or sitting down for a picnic, it's easy to picture moments from Listen Out for Love, where Peyton and Alex share quiet conversations that gradually deepen their connection. The river moves steadily beside you, and everything feels unhurried.

3:00PM
KENNA
CARTWRIGHT NATURE PARK

As the afternoon continues at Kenna Cartwright Nature Park, the elevated view creates a moment of clarity. It's the kind of scene where a character pauses, looks out, and realizes something has changed for the better.

2:30PM
DINNER DATE &
DOWNTOWN STROLL

The evening brings everything together. Dinner at Cordo or Brownstone feels like the movie is coming to an end. And as you step out into the evening for a quiet downtown stroll, the story settles into its final moment.
